

The Classics Students Association presents:
Whose Classics?

The 27th Annual Spring Lecture Series

4/10: Stefani Echeverría-Fenn
Representing The Sportula:
Microgrants for Classics Students

"Meas Esse Aliquid Putare Nugas:
'Small things' and Economic Justice in Classics"

4/17: Dr. Donna Zuckerberg
Editor-In-Chief, Eidolon

"My Classics Will Be Intersectional, Or..."

4/24: Rhodessa Jones and the Medea Project
Theatre for Incarcerated
Women/HIV Circle

"Our Classics: Ancient Myth in the Community"

5/1: Dr. Anastasia Sakellariadi

"Whose Classics? Whose Heritage?
Classical Archaeology and the 'Loss of Innocence'"

Lectures will be held in Humanities 587, 7-8 PM
with reception to follow

Center for Greek Studies
co-sponsor

Admission is free to the public